The Forbidden Chapter

Isaiah 53

---

According to newtestamentchristians.com, there are 351 Messianic prophecies in the Old Testament that are fulfilled in Jesus. The book of Isaiah contains 125 of them, 35 of which appear in chapter 53. That means a full 10 percent of all the prophecies God gave Israel about the Messiah appear in this amazing chapter of His Holy Word. So we're devoting this issue of Israel My Glory to Isaiah 53. We hope you enjoy it.

Interview: Jonathan Hessen, TV7 Israel News

We value truth when it comes to what's going on in Israel. If you do, too, you'll be happy to hear this week's interview! Our special guest this week is Jonathan Hessen. He's the CEO and editor-in-chief of TV7 Israel News, the only evangelical Christian news entity that is broadcast from Jerusalem and shared with the world. Jonathan shares about his much-needed ministry and the value of learning the current events of the Holy Land from a biblical perspective. We hope you are encouraged by Jonathan's report!

of the rest of the Bible—

Through one man, Adam, came all humanity....

Through one man, Abram, came a nation....

Adam's individual rebellion in Eden led to a corporate rebellion at Babel.

God called Abram out of Babylon.

Through one man, Adam, came all humanity....

Through one man, Abram, came a nation....

Adam's individual rebellion in Eden led to a corporate rebellion at Babel.

God called Abram out of Babylon.

Man had attempted to build his kingdom, but God was determined to build His kingdom on Earth (Gen. 11:4; 12:2).

Adam was the type, and brought sin into the world (Rom. 5:12-14).

Adam was the type, and brought sin into the world (Rom. 5:12-14).

The Second Adam from above, the Last Adam, was the fulfillment and provided salvation (Rom. 5:12-21; 1 Cor. 15:21-22; 45-49).

Adam was the type, and brought sin into the world (Rom. 5:12-14).

The Second Adam from above, the Last Adam, was the fulfillment and provided salvation (Rom. 5:12-21; 1 Cor. 15:21-22; 45-49).

The ultimate descendant of Abram was the Messiah—the Redeemer promised to Adam (Gen. 3:15).
